KING CARLOS MURDER

Mystery Behind Assassination May Never Be Lifted.

INVESTIGATION NOT PUSHED

Political Parties of Portugal, Desirous of Clearing Their Skirts of Responsibility for Regicide, Are Not Anxious to Probe Into Crime.

Lisbon, Feb. 27.—The mystery behind the murder of King Carlos and Prince Luiz is not likely ever to be completely lifted.

The new Portuguese government prefers that the crime should be regarded both at home and abroad as the deed of individuals carried away by the political passions of the moment, and inasmuch as the republicans are also anxious to clear their skirts of responsibility for regicide, both sides are glad to see an investigation which would probe the affair to the bottom Smothered. Yet there is undoubtedly much that could be cleared up.

It is a matter of common knowledge that there were intrigues in high places as well as low before the tragedy occurred and the rage of the leaders and Lieutenants of the two "rotative" parties against which Premier Franco and King Carlos were warring exceeded all bounds.

The Belgrade Plot.

There is no suggestion that there was a repetition of the Belgrade plot aimed at the King's person, but that some of the desperate political leaders were involved in the series of abortive plots against Franco's life which preceded the murder is believed in well-informed circles here.

Franco himself told a friend the day before he left Lisbon (virtually upon the order of the government) that it was impossible to reveal to the world what he had learned of the intrigues of the enemies of the king and himself and it was, therefore, better for him to retire forever from the political arena.

The connection between the republicans and the regicides is equally difficult to establish. The disclaimers of leaders like Bernardino Machado must be accepted so far as the "peaceful wing" is concerned, but this cannot be said of the advanced or radical wing, as there is plenty of evidence that they had planned a rising on the night of the crime. Signals to the ships in the harbor and the barracks on the slope of St. George hill were shown toward midnight from the roof of the national library and bands of men went to the barracks of an artillery and infantry regiment which were to join in the proclamation of a republic. The signals brought no responses and the doors of the barracks were found locked.

Conspiracy Fell Through.

The entire conspiracy fell through, it is related, because of the treason of a young lieutenant who, after the assassination of the king confessed to his father, and officers, the role he was to play. The young man claimed that he had been deceived; that he did not know regicide was contemplated having been led to suppose that only the life of the dictator was to be taken.

New City Hall for Rome.

Rome, Ga., Feb. 27.—At the meeting of the general council the question of a bond issue for $50,000 for the purpose of building a new city hall was discussed. Several members of the city council heartily favored the idea. Mayor Maddox delivered an address in which he stated that it would be necessary to provide offices for the new commissions. The matter of a $50,000 bond issue was then sprung, and it is probable that an election will be held in the spring for that purpose.

G. A. R. Veteran Dead.

Mobile, Ala., Feb. 27—George Rogers, who was with Admiral Farragut at the battle of Mobile bay, was found dead here Tuesday at his home by members of his family. He formerly resided at New Haven, Conn., and was a member of the Grand Army if the Republic.

BLOOD MANIA GRIPPED MAN.

Shot Mother-in-Law and Her Husband Then Suicided

Lamar, Mo., Feb. 27.—Lee Hart shot and killed Mrs. Joseph Edwards, his mother-in-law; shot and seriously wounded the latter's husband and then committed suicide by lying across the track and letting the St. Louis-San Francisco fast express run over his body.

He had served a term in the penitentiary. He and his wife had been married but six months and they quarreled frequently. Monday night the Harts were visiting the woman's mother. Mrs. Hart refused to start for their home as soon as Hart thought she should, and Hart in a fit of passion, drove her from the house.

After firing two shots at Mrs. Hart, one of which grazed her cheek, she fled to the house. Mrs. Hart and Mrs. Edwards barricaded the door, when Hart fired two shots through it. Both took effect in Mrs. Edwards' body.

Hart finally broke down the door and was about to enter the house when Edwards appeared with his shotgun. Before Edwards could fire, Hart shot him. Hart then fled. No trace had been found until his mutilated body was found on the railroad tracks.

PAYS DEATH PENALTY.

William Rogers Hanged at Savannah for Wife Murder.

Savannah, Ga., Feb. 27.—Willie Rogers was hanged Tuesday in the county jail in this city. The trap dropped at 1:13 o'clock and he was pronounced dead in fifteen minutes. The crime which Rogers expatiated on the gallows was the murder of his wife on Sept. 30, 1906.

He met his death in a calm manner, and showed little concern, displaying hardly any interest in the act which was to deprive him of his life. He was asked on the trap if he had anything to say, and replied: "Nothing." The body was turned over to his father, and was interred in Effingham county.

Willie Rogers shot and killed his wife, Ella, in a cook shop at 633 Berrien street, late in the afternoon of September 30, 1906. He approached her from the rear and fired once into her back. As she turned to fire he shot her again in the right breast. After being shot and just as she was going into a door she fell and died in a few minutes.

Rogers then turned the weapon upon himself and sent a bullet into his left shoulder.

BREWERS AT WORK.

Movement to Modify the State Prohibition Law of Georgia.

Atlanta, Feb. 27—There is a movement on foot which contemplates urging the legislature at its next session to modify the state prohibition law so as to permit the sale within the state of beers and light wines.

It comes from undoubted authority that particularly are the brewers of the state, or those interested in the breweries now idle, back of this movement.

Those urging the modification of the law, it is reported, base their hope in a large measure upon the recent public statement of Governor Smith to the effect that there should be such modification of the law as would permit the use of the light drinks, such as wines and beer, at the table as food.

Whether the governor would be willing to make such suggestion officially to the legislature cannot now be conjectured, but it comes direct that those interested in the movement to secure such modification of the Georgia law will make every effort to bring about some such change as this.

Reese Accepts Bishopric.

Savannah, Ga., Feb. 27.—Rev. F. A. Brown, rector of Christ church, and chairman of the committee that was appointed by the diocesan convention to notify Rev. Dr. Frederick F. Reese, of Nashville, Tenn., of his election to the bishopric of the diocese of Georgia, has received a letter from Dr. Reese stating he would accept. The salary of Bishop Reese will be $4,000 a year. Three or four months will probably elapse before he is consecrated bishop.

ROYALTY IMPERILED

Queen Wilhelmina Had Narrow Escape at The Hague.

HER CARRIAGE RUN DOWN

Electric Car, Going at Full Speed, Collided with the Vehicle, Which Was Wrecked—Queen and Prince Consort Uninjured.

The Hague, Feb. 27.—Queen Wilhelmina and Prince Henry, her husband, had a narrow escape from serious injury in a carriage accident that occurred near the palace Wednesday. The prince was driving the carriage in which her majesty was seated.

In a narrow part of the road an electric street car coming at full speed suddenly collided with the vehicle before the prince could turn out.

The impact was very severe, and the carriage was badly wrecked, three wheels being torn off. Fortunately, neither the queen nor the prince was hurt. Her majesty was somewhat unnerved, but she was able to walk to the palace.

Shortly after she left the palace and went to the residence of her mother in order to reassure her and prove that she had not been injured.

WARRANT FOR ROY'S ARREST.

American Actress Charges French Husband With Murder.

Paris, Feb. 27.—The police of this city have received from New York a warrant for the arrest of Paul T. Roy, on the charge of murder.

This charge was made by Roy's wife, an American actress, also known as Glacia Calla, who declares that he murdered her brother, Geo. A. Carkins, early in January in New Hampshire. The warrant has not yet been served.

The French law does not permit the extradition of French citizens, but provides for their trial and punishment in France for crimes committed abroad. Roy's brothers point out that his marriage to Miss Carkins is illegal in France as he had not previously obtained the consent of his parents, and they say he will apply for a divorce in America on the ground that his wife misrepresented her age at the time of her marriage, swearing she was twenty-seven when she was really thirty-four years old.

In addition to declaring that Paul Roy was forced to shoot Carkins in self defense, the family charge that the accusation of murder brought by Paul's wife is taken in a spirit of revenge because her husband informed her that he did not intend to return to America, but would henceforth live in France. The Roy family tried desperately but unsuccessfully to prevent the marriage of their brother to Miss Carkins. They besought him to return to France to see their mother, who was about to enter a private hospital.

The father of the accused man, Auguste Roy, is a prominent merchant and lives at Neuilly. Miss Carkins lived in Paris several years ago with her aunt, the Baroness von Orekiff. She was at one time engaged to the Count de Beyano. Her talent, wealth and beauty gave her access to exclusive circles. She finally rented a villa at Etretat and met Paul Roy, after which, according to her friends, her misery began.

Fired by Passing Engine.

Savannah, Ga., Feb. 27.—Godley Brothers' mills, ten miles west of the city, at Snyder, on the Seaboard Air Line railway, caught fire Monday and burned until after dark. The greater portion of the plant and contents was the property of W. S. & Nathan Goodley. It caught from the spark of a passing engine.

Great Shipment of Peace.

San Francisco, Cal., Feb. 27.—The greatest shipment of peace for the Philippines that has ever been made will be on the transport Thomas that will sail on March 5. The shipment will amount to nearly $3,000,000 and will go under a strong military guard.

DERIDES WAR IDEA.

Professor Takashi Says Hostilities Between U. S. and Japan Unlikely

New York, Feb. 25.—Professor Sakuyei Takashi, one of the "seven professors" of Japan, whose opinion on public matters has more or less weight in Japanese affairs, arrived in New York Tuesday after a visit through the southwest and south of the United States. Professor Takashi derides the idea that there is any possibility of war between the United States and Japan. In an interview he said:

"I find that the American people generally are for peace. I am positive that war between this country and Japan will never come. The two nations could not afford to fight because it would be detrimental to their interests. I find that the only war talk is in the United States. One hears nothing of it in the empire of Japan; we don't think of such a thing. Every day I learn from my observations that the educated people of this country are very friendly toward Japan. Apparently only the hoodlums are trying to create trouble. But we have the utmost confidence in President Roosevelt. As for the sailing of the American fleet for the Pacific coast, I learned that before leaving the coast the Japanese of California were preparing a celebration in honor of the fleet on its arrival."

SENT WARNING LETTERS.

Mine Officials and Officers Get Threatening Messages.

Silverton, Colo., Feb. 27.—A. W. Z. Kinney, of Denver, manager of the Gold King mine; H. M. Soule, vice president of the company which owns that property; Sheriff William Palmquist and two of his deputies received letters Tuesday, on each of which was scratched in a crude manner a skeleton and cross-bones, and containing a warning of swift and horrible death if they do not cease their activity in arresting and punishing ore thieves.

Manager Kinney immediately ordered the discharge of sixty-five Australians, Montenegran and Italian miners employed at the Gold King mine. Thirty-four Gold King miners have recently been arrested on charges of stealing high grade ore.

WERE ARRESTED AS SPIES.

Young Women Tourists Have Exciting Experiences.

San Francisco, Cal., Feb. 27.—According to a story told in the Examiner, Miss Hazel Edwards and Miss M. Thanes, young women tourists of New York, who made the trip to this city by way of the isthmus of Panama rather than by railroad, "for the novelty of the thing," had all the experience they looked for and a little more.

They arrived here at the beginning of the week in the Pacific mail steamer Newport and tell of having been arrested for spies by the chief of police of Guatemala City. After being arrested at the hotel, they were placed in the care of a matron in the prison and kept there nearly two days until the steamer Newport arrived, they said.

Confessed to Attempted Wrecking.

Sedalia, Mo., Feb. 27.—Walter N. Cox, a woodchopper whose home is at Franklin Junction, Mo., confessed to Missouri Pacific railway officials here that he removed the rail from the track on the top of Otterville hill, fifteen miles east of here on Friday night last, that resulted in the derailing of a freight train from St. Louis. Cox said he had intended to wreck and rob the fast Missouri Pacific, Kansas City-St. Louis passenger train No. 4, which was due at Otterville a few minutes after the freight was wrecked.

Patents for Silent Firearms.

New York, Feb. 27.—Hiram Percy Maxim, son of Sir Hiram Maxim, inventor of the machine gun which bears his name, has received patents for a silent firearm. It is announced that by the use of the device patented, the discharge of any firearm, from the smallest to the largest gun is rendered practically noiseless. The invention consists of the use of a device similar to the "muffler" used on automobiles to deaden the noise of the constant explosions by which the gasoline engine is operated.

MARKED BY "REDS"

Chicago Churchman Makes Startling Predictions.

INTENTIONS OF ANARCHISTS

Chancellor Dunne Claims that "Reds" Have Prepared Lists of Priests and Clergy To Be Killed—Chicago Man First on List.

Chicago, Feb. 27.—"A murder will be committed in Chicago within a month similar to the Denver assassination where the Rev. Father Leo Heinrichs was shot down while administering the holy communion in St. Elizabeth's Roman Catholic church," asserted Chancellor E. M. Dunne, of the Chicago archdiocese, Tuesday.

"I am positive that anarchists, anti-clericals, or whatever they call themselves, have prepared lists of priests and clergy to be killed, and am certain that some Chicago man has been marked," he said.

"I am the most logical man for assassination, and although I have thousands of friends in the Italian colony, I also have many bitter enemies."

Father Dunne said if he was not chosen to be murdered the other candidates would be either Archbishop Quigley, the Very Rev. F. S. Angelucci, of the Church of the Assumption, or the Rev. Father Francis Gordon, C. R., provincial of the Church of Resurrectionists.

Detectives Bernacchi and Longobardi reported to Chancellor Dunne at the chancery office and told him they were instructed to serve as his personal body guard.

GLADSTONE'S COUNTERPART.

Chicago Minister Compares Roosevelt to English Statesman.

Kansas City, Mo., Feb. 27.—"Gladstone was a strong man whose human side showed in all his policies, and Roosevelt is his counterpart. The two will go in history side by side and will have a place which is all their own."

Thus declared Rev. Frank W. Gunsaulus, president of the Armour institute of technology, Chicago, in the course of an address here at the dinner of the Knife and Fork club.

Continuing, Rev. Gunsaulus said in part:

"While times of great trouble like the civil war demand a Lincoln, times like the present need a man who has some of the qualities of Gladstone, and Mr. Roosevelt has them in plenty. People fifty years from now will be forced to admit Roosevelt was a great man, whatever faults they may discover in him."

MAYOR OF CHICAGO

Acted as Escort for Self Confessed Embezzler.

Chicago, Feb. 27.—The mayor of the second greatest city of America personally escorted from a penitentiary cell at Joliet to Chicago Tuesday night a self-confessed embezzler of public funds. Fred A. Busse is the mayor and John A. Linn, former clerk of the circuit court, is the embezzler. Linn was convicted of unlawfully taking $31,000 in fees and confessed the theft.

The mayor sat with the felon during the ride to Chicago and kept Linn from being annoyed by inquisitive persons at the station when they arrived. The mayor's secretary was at the station with a carriage.

Linn was in the penitentiary twenty-two months. The reason given for the release is that his health had failed and that his mind was failing.

Permanent Organization.

Charlotte, N. C., Feb. 27.—Delegates representing practically every board of trade and chamber of commerce in North and South Carolina met here Tuesday and effected a permanent organization under the title of the association of secretaries of the Carolinas. A constitution and by-laws were adopted and the meeting addressed by prominent men of both states. John Wood, secretary of the Greenville, S. C., chamber of commerce, was elected president.

DAVIS BILL WILL HELP EDUCATION

Makes It Possible for Every State to Have Industrial School.

GENERAL LINE OF EDUCATION

The Bill Embraces Education Not Only Literary, But Along Agricultural Lines—Has the Endorsement of President.

Congressman C. R. Davis, of Minnesota, feels greatly encouraged concerning the passage in the near future of his industrial high-school bill. The numerous endorsements from the leading educational men of the United States, including favorable resolutions from many educational organizations, farmers' associations, State colleges of agriculture and mechanic arts, commercial organizations, boards of trade, manufacturers' organizations and industrial organizations generally throughout the country, have inspired the hope that Congress will be induced to consider favorably the measure during the present session.

By appointment Mr. Davis had an interview with the President, in which the provisions of the bill were considered. He was very much gratified to receive from the President his hearty and full endorsement of the measure. In this interview allusion was made to the President's speech at Keokuk in October last, and the President was gratified to know that his ideas then expressed concerning this measure were receiving favorable consideration throughout the entire country. In this speech the President said:

"We should strive in every way to aid in the education of the farmer for the farm, and should shape our school system with this end in view; and so vitally important in this that, in my opinion, the Federal Government should co-operate with the State governments to secure the needed change and improvement in our schools. At present there is a gap between our primary schools in country and city which must be closed and if necessary the nation must help the State to close it. Too often our present schools tend to put altogether too great a premium upon mere literary education, and therefore to train away from the farm and shop. We should reverse this proces

Among the hundreds of endorsements Mr. Davis has received, and to which the President's attention was called, a letter written by Judge P. J. Shields of the Supreme Court of California especially attracted the President's attention. He not only approved of its contents but urged that great publicity be given to it as embodying briefly the desirability and necessity of developing education along industrial lines as embodied in this bill.

The President was much gratified at the equitable manner in which this bill distributes teannical and industrial education among the masses. He was especially pleased to know that this bill divides the money about equally as between agriculture, the mechanic industries and home-making.

Judge Shield's letter, written to his friend, Col. Weinstock, of Sacramento, California, is as follows:

"November 2, 1907.

"My Dear Mr. Weinstock:

"I received your letter enclosing a copy of the Davis Bill, which I now re-inclose to you. I was familiar with the bill from conversation with interested parties but had never seen it, and was glad to get it through you. I regard it as a very good bill; if it works out well it will prove a great bill. The only wrong about it would have to come in its administration—it is perfectly sound in its purpose. You know that when a Federal fund is provided for State distribution what a scramble there is for it.

"This to some extent has been true of the agricultural college endowment, although in the long-run that has worked its way out and proved a really great success. The danger which I have pointed out, however, is very well guarded against in the Davis Bill, by requiring the several States to first provide the grounds, the farm and the school buildings, and making the payment of the semi-annual amounts dependent upon the right use of preceding sums, and placing the Secretary of Agriculture in control of all disbursements.

"Rightly enforced, the bill is admirable. First, it provides for technical, industrial and practical education as distinguished from the old theory of educating all alike, regardless of his type or the life he was to lead; of teaching the boy or girl books alone, that they might thereby acquire the strength and fiber of mind to later learn men and things. The character of education proposed by this bill will teach the realities of life direct, and in the process cultivate the mind as well as the old plan. One of the most fruitful fields of the education of the future will be nature, the wondrous world we live in, and of this field agriculture comprehends its best features. This bill is broader than that, however, including mechanics and domestic science within its purposes. I am sure that a vigorous distribution of learning in these arts and sciences can do no harm, and will do incalculable good. I am not afraid of vulgarising the world or making it what is called 'utilitarian' by teaching all of the people to know plants and animals; through domestic science to feed the baby with wholesome food and the soul with all of the finer things which are comprehended within the limits of a real home, or through the mechanic arts which train men's bodies to their highest usefulness and to give expression to the mind's best conceptions. I am not afraid of the fate of a country whose people are given over to breeding perfect animals, rearing crops of best excellence, building good roads, labor-saving machinery, automobiles and railroads, constructing convenient houses, furnishing them perfectly and making real homes of them, to the building of bath tubs, arranging plumbing, weaving fine clothes and making them into right form. If the doing of such things does not make for peace and union, for moral industry and wholesome progress, then my judgment is hopelessly at fault.

"Nor can I doubt that out of such conditions will surely spring the soundest moral and intellectual culture and impulse. This bill represents this general direction and purpose, and I have no hesitation in pronouncing it sound and wise.

"When I see you I will enjoy talking it over with you and getting your views of it. My own are even more favorable to it than I have been able to state. Very truly yours,

"PETER J. SHIELDS."

Mr. Davis has been investigating some of the few objections suggested against the bill, and particularly those wherein it is claimed Federal appropriations would lead to national ownership of the contemplated schools, and also that these appropriations would relieve the States from the sense of responsibility. In answer thereto, he quotes from a letter written by the Hon. E. E. Brown, United States Commissioner of Education, as follows:

"The recent effect of the national appropriations under that act (1862) has been to stimulate greatly the support of the land-grant colleges by the States in which they are situated. Ten years ago the amount which these institutions received from their several States was $2,218,100, while in 1906 this amount was $7,531,502, showing an increase of about 240 per cent. In 1896 these institutions received, the country over, 29 per cent of their support from the National Government. Ten years later, in 1906, owing to the increase of State appropriations, the grants from the national treasury covered only 15.4 per cent of their total support."

These figures Mr. Davis contends are altogether encouraging as showing that national appropriations have not tended to relieve the States of the sense of responsibility, but have in fact quickened the sense of responsibility in the States which are benefited. The schools provided for in this measure are of exactly the same class as those inaugurated under the Morrill Act of 1862, and like them will strengthen the States directly and the Federal Government indirectly. As these State colleges have remained under State control, so will the schools of agriculture and the schools of mechanic arts provided for in this bill remain under State control, hence no cause for alarm from contralization. Instead of destroying the unity of our school system, this measure bridges the gap between the education of the schoolhouse and the education of the home, the farm and the shop. Heretofore our education has lacked unity, it has been too much centered about the literary, the non-industrial; its forms and substances have been too little co-ordinated with the training of the home, of the shop, of the farm and of the great outdoors. Through technical training it will keep our youth out of a peasant or submerged class; and by encouraging the States to expend more money for education it will greatly increase general as well as technical education.

In substance Mr. Davis' bill makes it possible for every State to have district agricultural schools. As these schools are to be located throughout the various districts of the State it brings an industrial education nearer to the homes of the people who need it. In these secondary schools domestic science would also be taught. This is a branch of learning that all of our young women ought to understand thoroughly. The lady who has to manage a house needs to understand domestic science as fully and as thoroughly as the lady who has too look after the details of making the house comfortable and the meals palatable.

Georgia and Alabama already have district agricultural schools. The good effect of these schools will be much more immediately noticeable than was the good effect of the agricultural colleges and experiment stations, as these district agricultural schools go right home to their patrons.

TWICE CURED OF SKIN TROUBLES

First Case a Rash Which Itched and Stung—Threatened Ten Years Later With Blood-Poison in Leg—But Both Times the Sufferer's

RELIANCE IN CUTICURA PROVED WELL-FOUNDED

"About twelve or fifteen years ago, while living in West Virginia, I had a breaking-out, and it itched and stung so badly that I could not have any peace because of it. I saw three doctors and they did not agree on what it was, so one of them gave me something that he called medicine, but I called it soda water. I might just as well have washed in raft-water. Then I got some Cuticura Soap, Cuticura Ointment, and Cuticura Resolvent and began to get better right away. They cured me and I have not been bothered with the itching since, to amount to anything. About two years ago I had la grippe and pneumonia which left me with a pain in my side. Treatment ran it into my leg, which then swelled and began to break out. It got in pretty bad shape, so I went to a doctor. He was afraid it would turn to blood-poison. I used his medicine but it did no good. So I sent for another set of the Cuticura Remedies. I used them three times and cured the breaking-out on my leg. Now I won't be without Cuticura. J. F. Hennen, R. F. D. 3, Milan, Mo., May 13, 1907."

STOMACH IS SEAT OF HUMAN LIFE

New Theory Advanced by Young Man Is Spreading Over Entire Country.

L. T. Cooper's theory concerning the human stomach, which he claims to prove with his new medicine, is being given more respect and comment every day.

Cooper claims that 90 per cent. of all ill health is due to stomach trouble. When interviewed about his theory recently, he said: "Stomach trouble is the great curse of the 20th century so far as the civilized races are concerned. Practically all of the chronic ill health of this generation is caused by abnormal stomachic conditions. In earlier days, when the human race was closer to nature, and men and women worked all day out of doors, digging their frugal existence from the soil, the tired, droopy, half-sick people that are now so common, did not exist.

"To be sure, there was sickness in those days, but it was of a virulent character, and only temporary. There was none of this half-sick condition all the time with which so many are afflicted nowadays.

"I know positively that every bit of this chronic ill health is caused by stomach trouble. The human stomach in civilized people today is degenerate. It lacks tone and strength. This weakness has gradually come through a sedentary existence. I further know that few people can be sick with the digestive apparatus in perfect shape. The sole reason for my success is because my New Discovery medicine tones the stomach up to required strength in about six weeks' time. That is why I have had more people come and thank me wherever I have gone to introduce my medicine, than I have had time to talk with."

Among the immense numbers of people who are now strong believers in Cooper's theory and medicine is Mrs. M. E. Delano, a prominent resident of the suburb of Brookline, Boston, Mass. She says: "For several years I was broken in health, caused primarily by stomach and nerve troubles. I gradually became worse, until recently I was compelled to go without solid food for days at a time. I had sour stomach, palpitation of the nerves of stomach and heart, dyspepsia, and extreme nervousness. I suffered terribly with insomnia, and my liver, bowels and whole system gradually became deranged. I felt instant relief the first day I began this Cooper medicine. I now feel like a new being. Today I walked all over town, shopping—something I have not done for years.

"I make this statement wholly from a sense of duty. I feel I owe it to anyone who might find relief and renewed happiness as I have done."

The record made by the Cooper medicines is astonishing. We will take pleasure in discussing it with anyone who wishes to know about them. —J. W. McCollum & Co.

BLOOM WAS HURT BY COLD

This Has Been Clearly Demonstrated to the Satisfaction of All.

BLOOMS FROM GRAHAM GROVE

They Were Crisp, Fragrant and Sweet, and Instead of Being Frozen Bore Evidence of Heavier Coming Crop Than Ever Before.

Col. [illegible] Graham, president of the [illegible] National Bank, who owns a handsome seventy-acre orange grove at Fairbanks, says that the recent cold has not affected the bloom in this section, as was predicted by many, and as proof of this assertion he brought with him from the grove [illegible] a prig containing a hundred blooms or more—in fact the blooms were too heavy for the branch to keep the fruit, and instead of suffering from the cold, Mr. Graham is of the opinion that the bloom must be thinned out.

Notwithstanding the fact that many growers were uneasy regarding the safety of their bloom for next season, owing to the drop of the thermometer to a point where they have been frozen in former years, no report of killed bloom has been made. Indications at present are that the coming orange crop in this section will be the largest it has been since the great freeze which killed out all the trees [illegible] years ago.

Mr. Graham states that in his entire grove the blooms are out in proportion to each branch he plucked and brought home. He did not exercise [illegible] in selecting this branch, but picked it, after an investigation, at random through the immense grove.

This is one of the finest groves in this section of the State, inasmuch as all varieties set there are of the choicest. The fruit from this grove always commands the highest market prices. There are many other good groves in that section, however, and the growers feel grateful that there was no damage.

Fire at Public School.

A small fire, which originated in a [illegible] matches behind the desk of the principal in his private office, created a great deal of confusion and excitement among the faculty and students who had gathered prior to the opening of the school Wednesday morning, and for a time there was a general scene of animation. A bucket of water quenched the flames, however, and there was no damage beyond a little fright.

Warranty and mortgage deeds, chattel mortgages and labor contracts for sale at this office. Price 50 cents per dozen or $2 per hundred.

NEWBERRY DRAMATIC CLUB.

Presented "All a Mistake" to a Large Audience at Newberry Tuesday.

The Newberry Dramatic Club of Newberry presented the thrilling three-act comedy entitled, "All a Mistake," at the Newberry hall on Tuesday evening to a large crowd, who were delighted with the entertainment.

This show was given for the benefit of the Baptist church, the proceeds being used towards defraying the expense of painting the building.

So successful was this entertainment that the club has decided to visit Alachua and High Springs, and will play in Alachua next Tuesday evening. It is for a worthy cause, and the good people of Alachua will no doubt patronize it liberally.

Philathea Class Entertained.

Tuesday evening at the spacious home of Dr. J. F. McKinstry, Sr., the Philathea class of the First Methodist church was beautifully entertained by its teacher, Mr. Wm. R. McKinstry.

The first hour of the evening was devoted to the regular monthly business meeting, during which time a great deal of important business was transacted. After the meeting adjourned the remainder of the evening was spent very pleasantly in listening to different musical selections, which were beautifully rendered.

During the latter part of the evening the young ladies were ushered into the dining-room, where they were served by the Misses McKinstry to a delicious salad course, followed by cream and cake. This room was tastefully decorated, the center-piece of the table being a silver basket of Russian violets and maiden-hair fern. After spending the most pleasant evening in the history of the class, the guests congratulated themselves upon having such an entertaining host as their teacher.

Returned to West Virginia.

After a residence in this city of nearly four years, during which time they have made many friends, Mr. and Mrs. George Forman and Bruce Watson left Tuesday for their former home, Terra Alta, W. Va., where they will remain permanently.

Mr. Forman established the Golden Rule Bottling Works, and was for a long time manager of this establishment. He was one of the leading spirits in the matter of good for the town and the community, and it is with regret that our people see him leave.

Misfortune to Baby.

The fifteen-months-old girl of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Brabham had the misfortune to be painfully, if not severely scalded, Wednesday, with the result that the child suffered greatly.

While playing around its mother in the kitchen, the stove was accidentally overturned, throwing a quantity of water, etc., over the child's body.

Dr. Lartigue was immediately summoned and did everything possible to alleviate the little one's sufferings. The chances are good for its recovery, but it will require some time.

MADE A FINE SALE.

Gainesville Furniture Company Sold Solid Carload of Furniture.

The citizens of Gainesville should feel proud of such a store as the Gainesville Furniture Company, which not only depends upon the local and immediate trade of this section, but caters to business from towns and cities for a hundred miles around—and successfully, too.

The Gainesville Furniture Company is not only a retail establishment, but sells large quantities of goods at wholesale and in big lots. Not infrequently does an order of a solid car go from this reliable establishment, which speaks well for Gainesville as well as the firm.

The latest sale of any magnitude has just been closed, whereby this enterprising firm sold a solid carload of furniture and house-furnishings for the new hotel, the Tuscawilla, at Micanopy, and the order was shipped Thursday. The lot comprises a general variety, embracing everything used in a modern hotel, of the best quality, which is an assurance that the Tuscawilla will be fitted up in the latest style for the convenience of its patrons.

The Gainesville Furniture Co., which handles everything in furniture and house-furnishings, is to be congratulated for its energy.

The Chapman Lecture.

In the lecture to be delivered Tuesday evening at the high school auditorium by Mr. Frank M. Chapman, the Gainesville public will have an opportunity of hearing a man who combines in a rare degree the faculties of entertaining and instructing at the same time. The Bridgeport (Conn.) Standard says of his lecture on Florida bird life: "If all the lectures delivered before the Scientific Historical Society in the annual winter course which has been arranged attain to the high standard of interest and instruction reached by the first of the series delivered before an appreciative audience last evening, then the wish of the society will indeed have been carried out, and it will have been this privilege of residents of this city to listen to the best course of lectures on scientific subjects delivered outside of a university anywhere in this country. Mr. Chapman is to be particularly congratulated upon the facility of his expression, and upon his choice of words. The scientific investigator or student can find in his talks all the information desirable, with the scientific names of the objects described satisfactorily given, while those not versed in the love of ornithology can fully understand every idea expressed, and can comprehend every portion of the lecture."

Grand Master White.

Your Stomach Is Your Friend

If you have a good stomach and wish to keep it, steer clear of lard-cooked food. Lard is made from hog fat, and is more apt to be impure than it is to be clean and healthful.

Cottolene is the most reliable frying and shortening medium. It is a pure, wholesome, digestible product, that is bound to be more satisfactory than lard wherever it is given a fair test.

Besides being more healthful, Cottolene is more economical than lard or cooking butter, one-third less being required. It will, moreover, make more nutritious food than either lard or butter.

With all these advantages on the side of Cottolene, what argument have you for not using it? Your own grocer, if he is progressive, has Cottolene for sale. Buy a pail to-day, use it according to directions, and we will warrant you will never go back to the lard habit.

You can be as "widely read" in this city today as any dozen standard authors if you are the author of one of the ads. in today's paper.

To want a situation and yet fail to advertise for it is evidence of such poor business "knack" that an employer would regard you with little enthusiasm.

If a protective tariff caused high wages, as the Republicans claim, why should wages be twice as high in Massachusetts as they are in South Carolina? The tariff is just as high in one State as in another.

Secretary Taft is reported to have told the Young Men's Republican Club of Yale that there would and should be a "re-examination" of the tariff, which might establish the tariff on a firmer basis. Is Taft now also among the standpatters?

All the Republican Presidential candidates pretend to have it in for the "malefactor of great wealth," but when the candidate is chosen the M. O. G. W. will be invited as usual by the campaign manager to help fill the campaign "barrel."

The sad intelligence comes from Washington that United States Senator W. J. Bryan is confined in the hospital with typhoid fever. The people of the entire State deeply sympathize with him in his sore affliction and will earnestly pray for his early recovery.

The Bishops of the African M. E. Church have declared for Senator Foraker for President and intimate that certain elements of the negroes may bolt if he is not nominated. And this occurs under the very shadow of the White House. Whither are we drifting?

The Democrats of Illinois are talking of running John Mitchell, the retiring head of the coal miners' organization, for Governor. Mitchell is able and honest, the two principal Democratic requisite for official position, and should be elected in spite of the normal Republican majority.

The committee on Naval Affairs of the House of Representatives, by a vote of 13 to 5, rejected the President's urgent recommendation for four new battleships. Only two of the Delaware type were authorized. Even the usually extravagant Republicans cannot afford for long to appropriate more money than the Government collects.

The most foolish order ever issued by a body of sensible men is that of the Florida Railroad Commission prohibiting railroad companies from exchanging transportation with editors for advertising in their newspapers. There is no law in Florida upon which to base such a ruling, and the Commissioners have just as much right to forbid publishers from sending their paper to subscribers in exchange for chickens and eggs, or other produce.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

Special Correspondence The Daily Sun

Washington, D. C., Feb. 27.—A majority of the people of Washington believe that President Roosevelt will eventually be renominated, not that most of them want him to be, but because they think he is scheming for a third term. I think they are mistaken, though the fact that so many influential politicians from the West and South are constantly coming to Washington and declaring that their people want Roosevelt, and most of these political visitors being patronage dispensers, in a measure justifies the belief that there is some occult influence at work to bring the President's renomination about. At the present time neither the Roosevelt nor the reactionary faction of the Republican party have a majority of the delegates to the convention in sight. Contesting delegations will be so numerous that there will undoubtedly be a prolonged dispute about the seating of some of the rivals, and the vote may be very close on deciding who are entitled to seats. Taft appears to be gaining ground, and as all the enormous power of the President and the office holders is being exerted for him, it would be a political miracle if he should be unable to secure the nomination. Whichever Republican faction wins, I expect claims to be made of corrupt influences having been used to secure delegates, either by direct payment for votes or by promises of official positions.

Under the above conditions there would be a great chance for Democratic success, if the party could nominate someone upon whom all Democrats could unite, but although that is possible it is not probable. Even many of the Bryan leaders who feel confident of his nomination admit there is grave doubt of his election. A striking instance of this is the opinion of former Governor Thomas of Colorado, who is in the city. He declares that: "There is but one candidate and he is Bryan." But when questioned about the outcome he says: "His election is another matter, but this much is certain: The National Democracy, as now constituted in sentiment and purpose, would prefer Bryan and defeat to the acceptance of any candidate suggested by those who repudiated the ticket in 1896 and 1900."

As there does not appear to be any intention by the conservative faction of the party to attempt to nominate as candidate anyone who opposed Mr. Bryan in his two former campaigns, the position taken by Governor Thomas and other Bryan leaders that they would prefer Bryan and defeat to someone else and Democratic success, is hardly a sensible position for practical politicians to take. They only arouse the ire of those who do not wish to see Mr. Bryan nominated, because they feel certain he cannot be elected; and who, unlike those Bryan leaders, want to make sure of success.

Senator Daniel of Virginia, in The New York World of the 18th, states his position fully, and takes issue with Mr. Bryan on the new policies he seeks to inject into the campaign. As Senator Daniel was one of the most ardent and influential supporters of Mr. Bryan in 1896, he cannot be classed as a reactionary; but his statement shows that he is a Jeffersonian Democrat of the old school.

There is another matter that is worrying Mr. Bryan and his friends, and that is the attitude of Mr. Hearst, who has called a meeting of the managing directors of the Independence League at Chicago for an early date with the evident purpose of calling a National Convention of the League and nominating a ticket.

HELPING THE TRUSTS.

The National Civic Federation is arranging for a delegation from Chicago of twenty-five members to attend the public hearings to be held before the Judiciary Committees of Congress on March 6th. The object of the Federation is to approve proposed changes in the anti-trust laws, "so as to permit what are really harmless combinations." The railroads and trusts would thus be able legally to enter into freight and passenger agreements and labor contracts. The Federation is controlled by Republicans, and it would seem that the Republican leaders in Congress want some appearance of business backing before they act favorably on the bills now in the hands of the committees. So instead of tightening the law to control the trusts and corporations it is the evident intention of the Republican majority of Congress to give them more leaway. The only hope for the people is that the fear of the coming election may prevent the Republicans from helping out the trusts and corporations. Keep your eye on your Senators and Representatives that are Republicans—they need to be watched.

MORGAN AND ROCKEFELLER.

The "interests" that inspired the Aldrich currency bill will hardly know it when the Senate gets through with it. "Whatever the minor eccentricities of it's varigated texture," remarks The New York Journal of Commerce, "one vicious pattern will run all through it. It will provide for an emergency addition to the regular volume of currency, secured by a deposit of miscellaneous bonds and heavily taxed. This will be a mere exaggeration of the radical defect of the existing system, gathering the corrupt humor with which it is infected into a morbid excrescence." This severe criticism from the leading business and financial newspaper of the country should cause a Republican Congress to pause before it further complicates our cumbersome financial structure by makeshifts.

Former Governor William L. Douglas of Massachusets, who understands the tariff question better perhaps than any other man in this country, declares that the "trust-busting" business as conducted at Washington is farcical; that neither policies nor the methods of President Roosevelt are right. He believes that those policies and methods are intended to accomplish results in the interest not of the people, but of the trusts. Governor Douglas thinks as other Democrats do, that the only possible remedy for trust evils is to revise the tariff which enables trusts to monopolize the market.

The automobile races at Daytona will commence Monday. There are twenty-eight entries for the tournament.

Sanford celery is selling today for $1.25 f. o. b. Sanford, which is considered a very good price. The celery around Sanford is reported very fine this year.

The orange crop from Osceola county's poor farm was sold for 75 cents a box on the tree and turned into the county treasury $1,500. Rather a rich poor farm.

The Country Club at Fort Myers was formally opened last week. The opening of the club marks a new epoch in the social life of that place. Every town needs such a resort.

The United States Government building for Ocala will be a superb three-story structure. The contract was let to a concern in Grand Rapids, Mich., and is to be completed by July 1, 1909.

The county commissioners of Osceola county drew a warrant for $25 for the Village Improvement Society with which to improve the court house yard. These commissioners can hardly be accused of being extravagant.

Lake Kingsley, near Starke, is the largest and deepest spring in Florida, says The Starke Telegraph, not excepting Silver Spring. It is 92 feet deep, nearly two and a half miles across in any direction, and about five and three-quarters miles around.

C. F. Walker of Savannah, Ga., and two Florida citizens, have organized a land company with $25,000 capital. They control 10,000 acres of farming land in the southern part of Volusia county, which will be subdivided into five-acre lots and placed on the market.

Grassy Key, one of the numerous keys over which the extension of the F. E. C. railway is built, has been purchased—or, rather, a large tract of land on the key has been purchased—by Messrs. Crane and Morton, capitalists from the North, who have had same laid out into city lots. A large number of the lots face the ocean. In a few days a force of men will be put to work cleaning off the timber. The streets are all to be paved, sidewalks built and a large hotel erected.

A REGULAR CIRCUS

Every Time Children Had to Take Cod Liver Oil.

We have all seen or experienced it—they had to be bribed—their noses held, and some sweets ready as soon as it was swallowed, and even the grown ups demanded preserves, lemon or coffee in which to take cod liver oil.

That was years ago before the eminent French chemists, Morgues and Gautier, discovered how to separate the medicinal and curative elements of the cod's liver from the useless, nauseating oil and produced Vinol.

Vinol is not a patent medicine, but a real cod liver preparation, containing in a highly concentrated form all of the body-building, strength-creating and curative elements of cod liver oil actually taken from fresh cods' livers, with all the useless oil eliminated and peptonate of iron added. It is delicious to take and children love it.

We ask every mother in Gainesville who has a weak, delicate or ailing child, every run-down, debilitated or aged person, and every person suffering from pulmonary troubles, to try Vinol on our offer to return money if it fails to give satisfaction.—W. M. Johnson, Druggist, Gainesville, Fla.

JOHN GAINES STILL SICK.

Has Not Recovered from Wounds inflicted by Anthony Parker, Jr.

John Gaines, the colored boy who was stabbed in the back Tuesday night by Anthony Parker, Jr., in a street row at the corner of West Main and East Liberty streets, is yet confined to his bed, hence the defendant, who was arrested and is under bond, has not yet had an opportunity to appear before the municipal court.

This story is familiar to our readers, since it was published in The Sun of Wednesday morning. After the affray Parker was arrested, but immediately gave bond for his appearance in the municipal court when required. Gaines has not yet been enabled to appear against him.

Dr. Ayer, Gaines' attending physician, states that the wound is not dangerous, but that Gaines will have to remain in bed for several days.

OUR NATIONAL DANGER.

Time to Cry a Halt, Before Complete Wreck Results.

There are thousands, both men and women, who do not take time to eat properly. They rush through a life, and as a result we have an age of indigestion, nervousness, irritability, sleepless nights, and morose disposition. Our national danger is stomach weakness, due to the strenuous life.

With the discovery of Mi-o-na tablets, which strengthen the walls of the stomach and stimulate secretion of the digestive juices, there is no longer any excuse for indigestion.

Sick headaches, palpitation, yellow skin and coated tongue are a few of the many distressing results of indigestion that Mi-o-na never fails to cure.

J. W. McCollum & Co. sell Mi-o-na in 50-cent boxes, and guarantee to refund the money if it does not give complete satisfaction.

DEATH OF MRS. EDSON.

Highly Esteemed Resident of Waldo Passed Away Very Suddenly.

Friends in this city of Mrs. M. A. Edson of Waldo were shocked Thursday morning to learn of her sudden death, which occurred at her home at 8:30 o'clock of acute indigestion.

Deceased was about seventy-six years of age, and came to Waldo about twenty years ago from St. Louis with the Porter and Bartleson families.

Mrs. Edson partook of her breakfast as usual, and with the usual appetite, Thursday morning, but shortly afterwards complained of feeling badly. A physician was summoned and administered to relieve her, but after a few moments she expired.

Deceased was a member of the Presbyterian Church, and a lady of most Christian-like, charitable disposition. She was loved and esteemed by a large circle of friends, who regret exceedingly her demise. She is survived by one son, Frank, of St. Louis, and five daughters, Mesdames W. K. Stager of Philadelphia, W. M. Warren and Maude Stowe of St. Louis, B. E. Strickland of Waldo, and F. R. LeBarron of Palatka, to whom the sympathy of friends is extended.

The remains will be taken to St. Louis for interment.

CONGRESSMAN CLARK WRITES PRESIDENT

Requesting Him To Name New Battleship "Florida."

GIVES GOOD REASON THEREFOR

Judiciary Committee Busy with Anti-Liquor Measure Introduced at This Session of Congress—Mr. Reid's Bill Relating Proceedings in Equity.

(By Ben. H. Sullivan.)

Washington, D. C., February 27.—Representative Frank Clark of Florida is likely to be successful in having the President name one of the new battleships for which this Congress will in all probability provide "The Florida."

Mr. Clark this week made a very strong appeal to this end in the way of a letter which reads as follows:

"The President,
"The White House,
"Washington, D. C.

"Sir: As it appears to be quite likely that the present session of Congress will provide for the construction of at least two new battleships, and as under the law you will have the naming of these vessels, I desire to suggest, and to respectfully urge, that you will name one of these vessels 'The Florida,' in honor of the State which I, in part, represent in Congress.

"As I understand it, every State in the Union, with the exception of Florida, Utah and Oklahoma, has been honored by having a first-class naval vessel named for it. It is true that a monitor was named for the State of Florida, but that did not confer upon our State the same degree of honor that has been conferred upon the others, and beside this, the old monitor is now being used simply as a target.

"I most respectfully submit that as Florida is the oldest of the three that have not been properly cared for in this regard, as she contains within her borders the oldest settlement within the United States, and as her whole history is indissolubly linked with the settlement and growth of our beloved country, it is not asking too much for me to appeal to you in behalf of all our citizenship to name one of these proposed vessels 'The Florida.' Trusting that you may appreciate the justice of the asking herein made, and with great respect, I am,

"Yours obediently,
"FRANK CLARK."

As yet no reply has been received, but anyone seeing the situation realizes the strong claim Florida has for the honor sought for her by her able member of Congress, and it is a matter of much speculation in Washington as to the result, but generally it is believed Mr. Clark will be successful.

Considerable attention is being devoted in the Committee on Judiciary to the consideration of the anti-liquor measures which have been introduced and referred to this committee. Upon this committee Mr. Reid of Arkansas is one of the leading Democratic members. For the last three weeks this committee has been in almost constant session. A large number of people representing both sides of the question have been before the committee presenting different views of the subject. The proposed legislation is a provision to subject intoxicating liquors, shipped in interstate commerce, to the police powers of the States when they cross the boundary line of the State.

Along with this the committee has been receiving the arguments of so-called anti-injunction legislation.

Mr. Reid has introduced a bill to provide that legal proceedings in cases in equity in the Federal courts should conform to the procedure that obtains in the States where the courts are being held. The sub-committee having it in charge has given it favorable consideration and will report it to the full committee. The measure is an important innovation on the practice in Federal courts, as it now exists, and the purpose of the desired change is to make less cumbersome the practice in the Federal courts by bringing the practice up to the modern date procedure; whereas the practice which exists now has held sway since the Government was organized. Mr. Reid's bill is in a promising attitude before the committee and he entertains the expectation of having it favorably reported to the House at an early date.

COLDS AND GRIP

A Home Treatment Better Than Drugging

The best general treatment for colds, and usually much better than drugging, is to create bodily warmth to make up for the heat that is lost. Treat it at the beginning by a hot bath, or if not convenient to get into a bath tub take hot mustard and water foot bath, and go to bed at once, taking a hot drink of lemonade, milk, tea, or other non-alcoholic drink. Rub briskly over the throat and chest with

MINARD'S KING OF PAIN LINIMENT

Sleep between blankets, be careful to keep the arms and body well covered, and remember that the sweating is evidence that you are overcoming the cold, so above all don't undo the benefit by throwing off the clothes if you feel a little uncomfortable. A thorough rubbing of the throat and chest with Minard's Liniment will, besides giving relief, do much to prevent recurrence of the cold, and also be strong measure of protection against any of the serious complications resulting from colds.

Coroner's Jury Returns Verdict Against Husband and Wife.

Brazil, Iowa, Feb. 27.—A coroner's jury Wednesday brought in a verdict blaming Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Palmer for the death of their ten-year-old boy. With the Christian Science prayer "God is my life" on his lips, the son of the couple died at their home in Brazil Sunday after having been sick with pneumonia for two weeks.

This was the second child of Mr. and Mrs. Palmer to be fatally sick with only prayers to aid it.

Coroner Tillmon and a jury investigated the case and in addition to returning the verdict, asked the county attorney to take steps further to investigate the case and prevent any other similar occurrences in this county

Senate Refuses to Concur in Governor Hughes' Recommendation.

Albany, N. The vote was:

Ayes, 29; noes, 30; absent or not voting, 2.

The vote last year on the same proposition was 24 to 27.

Attempt to Wreck Train.

Charleston, S. C., Feb. 27.—Three cars of train No. 17 of the Southern railway were derailed near Kingville Tuesday night, the result of a misplaced switch. The engine, baggage and mail cars passed safely over the open switch, but the three passenger coaches left the track. The passengers were given a bad scare, but only minor injuries were sustained. All the passengers were crowded into the car next to the engine, and proceeded to Columbia. The switch had been opened evidently with the intention to wreck that or other trains.

Was Killed by Train.

Powder Springs, Ga., Feb. 27.—Jim Bruce, about fifty years of age, was killed by the fast mail train on the Southern railway half a mile north of this place, at Camp's Crossing. Mr. Bruce was returning from Atlanta with his mule and wagon. The mule was not injured but the wagon was wrecked and Mr. Bruce was killed outright. The train stopped and brought the lifeless body of Mr. Bruce to the depot.

Another Reform Proposed.

The perfect way is to cure the kidneys.

Doan's Kidney Pills are made for kidneys only.

S. B. Lemons, cigar maker, living at 1311 Ashlet street, Tampa, Fla., says: "I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they cured me of backache and disorder of the kidneys. Two or three times on account of the pain in my back I was unable to work for several days. The secretions of the kidneys were in a very bad condition, dark in color, and if allowed to stand would become of the consistency of jelly. I tried various remedies, taking what seemed like gallons of medicine and I also put on plasters, but nothing helped me at all until I got Doan's Kidney Pills upon the advice of a friend of mine, and using them according to directions they cured me in a very short time.

HUMAN LOVE.

The One Joyous Impulse That Rules the Whole Wide World.

There lives somewhere in the depths of every human heart the divine spark that we call love. It is the voice of the universe slumbering in its narrow cell to be awakened by a whisper or to cry out in dear desire and hear the echoing answer from another soul. Without it life would be a pale, relentless episode. Without its quickening force no temples would be reared by human hands, yet hovels wherein it dwells become more glorious than palaces. Ambition, fame and fortune are its slaves. It chains the mind in sweet imprisonment, makes credulity a guardian queen and lulls suspicion to repose.

No censorship of right or wrong can light the way of love. It walks in pathways all its own. It laughs at reason and dispels despair. It is the lisping word of children, the puzzle of philosophers, the talisman of rulers. It is the first and last of life—murmured at the cradle, cherished at the grave. It is the rainbow after tears, the cure for every sorrow, the one joyous impulse that rules the whole wide world. —Wade Mountfortt in Era Magazine.

The Instinct of Design.

When a Japanese cannot mold the shape of an object, when he cannot redeem it by a design, when, in fact, he has no control over its creation at all, but it is placed in his hands as it is, finished, says the author of "Kakemono," he will still contrive to add beauty to it merely by arrangement.

"I first noticed this on board the steamer going out," says Mr. Edwards, "where the Japanese boy arranged the extra blanket on the berth in a new design each day. He folded it into lotus leaves and chrysanthemums, into half opened fans and half shut buds. He had one wonderful arrangement which, being patriotic, was more often repeated than the rest. The blankets of the steamship company had at top and bottom two wavy red lines on a white ground. By some wonderful twist of his fingers the boy would fold that blanket into the rising sun, with the four red lines coming out of it like blood red rays. He did it so perfectly that I recognized the flag of Japan the moment I saw it."—Youth's Companion.

Time Is Money

Time and tide wait for no man and the accurate marking of its flight oftentimes means much money, either lost or gained, by the man who has a Watch he can always depend upon. The watches we carry are the makes of men who have been in the business of making watches all their life and their fathers were in the same business before them. In a word, these watches represent the acme of perfection and are built to keep accurate time all the time. They cost a little more than a Waterbury or Ingersoll, but in actual value they are cheaper. In all kinds of cases from $10 up.
